

POT COVER WITH DECORATIVE INDICIA

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 An apparatus for covering a pot includes a sleeve constructed of a stretchable material and a securing means. The sleeve has a decoration affixed to its outer surface. The apparatus preferably has an inner surface, and a top portion and a bottom portion for at least partially covering a bottom of the pot. A removable film may carry text, graphics or other decorations. The decorations generally relate to holidays or special personal days. The securing means for a first sleeve end to a second end is preferably a zipper, button, hook, hook-and-loop fastener, snap, buckle, or clasp.
